EDINBURGH CONVENTION BUREAU
ACCOMMODATION BOOKING SERVICE

As a large city in a relatively small area, Edinburgh is often described as the walking city. With over half of its accommodation located within three kilometres of the city centre, Edinburgh is particularly well suited to the needs of conference delegates.

This is where the accommodation booking service of Edinburgh Convention Bureau comes in. We have used our local knowledge and contacts to negotiate the best rates for delegates attending CPC 2001 Conference.

Allocations of rooms in several hotels have been reserved for the use of delegates attending the Conference and there are also alternative options throughout the City of smaller hotels, guest houses and self catering/serviced apartments.

As you would expect from an organisation representing Edinburgh, our standards are very high. The accommodation on our database is inspected by the Scottish Tourist Board and graded with its Quality Assurance Star scheme.

TO MAKE A RESERVATION

The Edinburgh Convention Bureau offers a free accommodation booking service to delegates. Please complete and return the accommodation booking form as soon as possible.

Please indicate your accommodation preference on the booking form. Wherever possible we will attempt to provide you with the accommodation of your choice, although room numbers are restricted, so substitution may be necessary. In this event we will book accommodation of a similar standard and price range.

Credit card details are required to make a booking and confirmation will be sent to your home address. Payment should be made directly with the hotel, guest house or self catering/serviced apartment at the time of your stay. Rooms reserved which are not cancelled within the cancellation policy will be subject to charge. The terms and conditions of making a booking through the Conference Accommodation Booking Service are printed below.

To discuss your requirements or make a booking please contact the Conference Accommodation Hotline at:
